

Living the Questions...

'Living the Questions' is an opportunity to question afresh the core issues of the Christian faith in the company of a number of leading American theologians such as Marcus Borg and John Dominic Crossan via a 20 minute dvd, and some fellow pilgrims and sceptics in a group discussion.

The poet Rilke speaks about 'loving the questions themselves' as part of our spiritual journey.

Sessions last from 12.15pm-1.45pm on Sundays and you are welcome to eat with the group in the Crypt cafe afterwards. You are welcome to attend as a one off - and we hope you will want to continue.

This is the second time we are running this course, so we will be beginning with the opening seven sessions this term:

1. An Invitation to Journey - September 19th 2. Taking the Bible Seriously - October 3rd 3. Thinking Theologically - October 24th 4. Stories of Creation - November 7th 5. Lives of Jesus - November 21st 6. A Passion for Christ: Paul - December 5th 7. Out into the World: Challenges facing progressive Christians - December 12th

Venue: The Austen Williams Room, 5 St Martins Place (buzzer for the Austen Williams room on the front door entry system)
